

Noah Works for God

Genesis 6—9

A man named Noah and his family loved God. They wanted to do God's will.

Other people were very bad. They did not love God.

"I am going to send a flood to destroy all the wicked life from the earth," God told Noah one day. He told Noah to build a great big boat called an ark. It would have many rooms in it where animals could live. The big boat would keep Noah's family and the animals safe from the flood.

"You and all your family come into the ark," God said after Noah finished building the ark.

Noah went into the ark with his family. They would be safe during the flood.

Two of each kind of animal and bird went into the ark. More than two of some animals and birds were there. They would all be safe during the flood.

God shut the door. No one could open it. The rain could not get in.

It rained so hard and so long that the earth was all under water. The ark floated safely on top of it all. Then, one day everyone felt the ark bump into something. The ark landed on top of a mountain. Noah knew the water was going away.

After many days God told Noah it was time to leave the ark. How good it was to be in a fresh, clean world! The people and animals would start life all over again on the earth.

Noah led his family to worship God. God blessed Noah because Noah accepted God's will in his life.

Touch the picture that shows Noah and his sons working to build the ark.

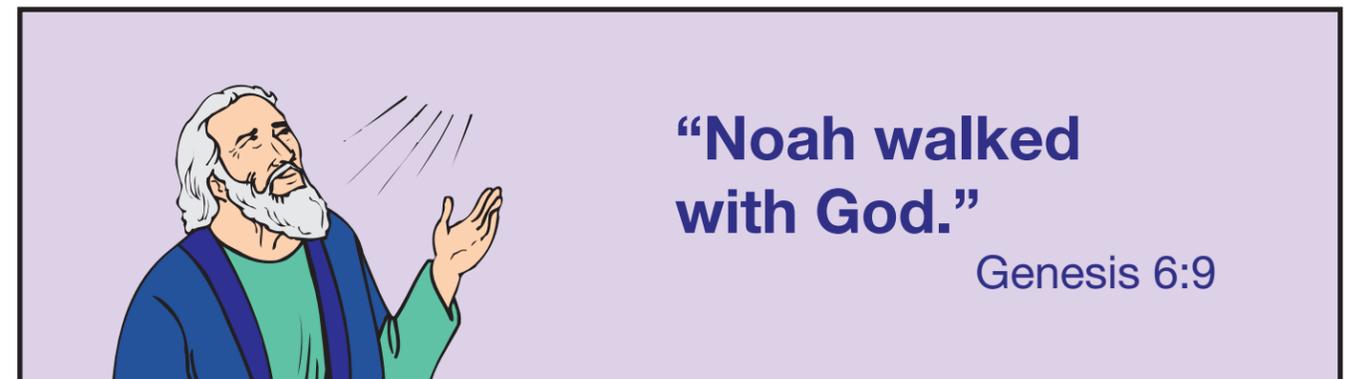

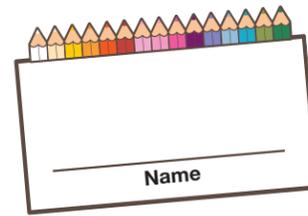

Look at the picture on the first page. Do you see the rainbow in the picture of Noah's family worshiping God? The rainbow is a sign God gave to Noah and to us. It means that He will never again destroy the earth by a flood.
