

Abraham and Sarah Moved to a New Home

Genesis 12:1-20

Abraham and Sarah lived in a tent house. God said to Abraham, "Leave your home here and go to a land that I will show you." Abraham and Sarah packed their things to move.

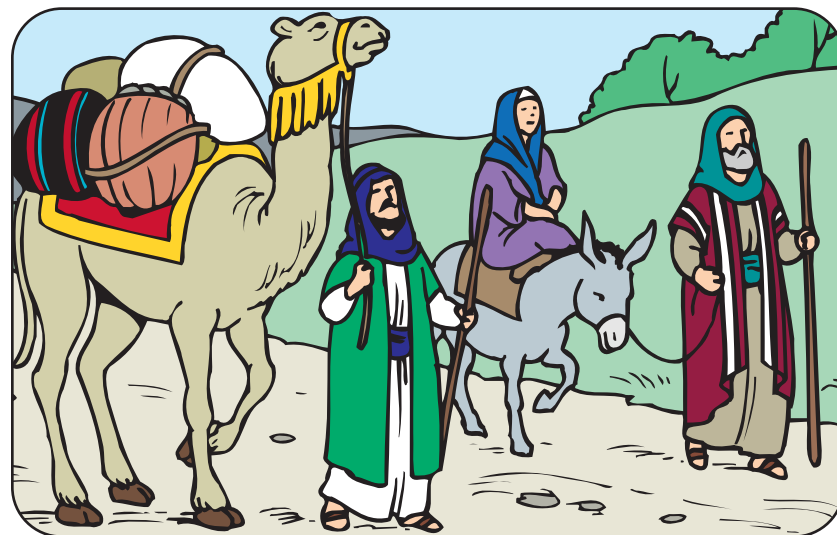

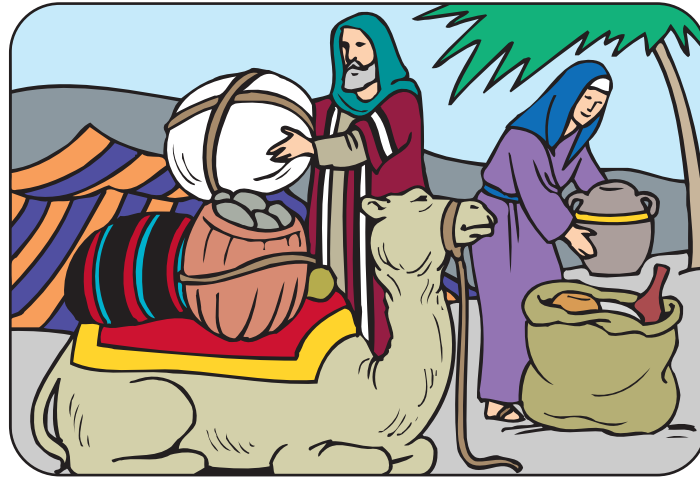

Abraham took Sarah and his nephew Lot. They began traveling to the new home God planned for Abraham. At last they came to Canaan. God told Abraham this land would be his.

When food would not grow in Canaan, Abraham moved again. He took his family to Egypt where there was plenty of food. But this was not where God wanted Abraham to live.

They packed up their tents and moved back to Canaan. God spoke to Abraham again.

"I will give all this land to you and your children. I will make a great nation of your family. I will bless you," God promised.

Abraham, Sarah and Lot unpacked their things. Abraham built an altar and worshiped God. He loved God. He believed God would keep all His promises.

I Believe God

Abraham believed God's promises.
I can depend on God to keep every promise to me, too.

God promises . . .
to give everything I need.
