My Daily Prayers:

Start Here

Can you answer the following questions?

1. How long had Israel been without a prophet?

2. When did Jesus' public ministry begin?

3. Who prepared the way for Jesus' public ministry?

Take a Closer Look

For this exercise, read each of the text Scriptures. Fill in the blanks in the following statements.

Matthew 3:1-4, "In those days came _____ the _____, _____ in the _____ of _____, and saying, _____:

for the _____ of _____ is at _____ . For this is he that was _____ of by the prophet _____, saying, The _____ of one _____ in the _____, _____ ye the _____ of the _____, make his _____ . And the same _____ had his _____ of _____ hair, and a _____ gir- dle about his _____; and his _____ was _____ and wild honey.”

My Things To Do Tomorrow:

Using your quarterly as a guide, complete the following statements. Use your own words, not necessarily the ones found in the book.

1. All believers have _____ to do for _____.

2. Some _____ and others _____ (1 Cor. 3:6).

3. We can't measure failure or success from _____.

4. God needs _____ to _____.

Building Blocks

Are you making it easy or difficult for others to follow the Lord? Ask your parents, your pastor or your teacher to help you find Bible information about service for God.
