

THE FIVE Rs

Today's Tell Card encourages you to read John 1 this week. Use the following quiet time method to help you as you study. You may want to use a journal to help.

READ This week read part of John 1 every day.

Monday John : 1:1-10

Tuesday John : 1:11-18

Wednesday : John 1:19-28

Thursday: John 1:29-36

Friday : John 1:37-44

Saturday : John 1:45-51

REWRITE Write one or two things that stood out to you from today's passage.

RESTATE Write down a verse or passage from today's Scripture text in your own words.

RELATE REVEAL Quiet your heart. Ask God what He is trying to tell you in today's passage. What other biblical narratives do you think of when reading this passage. What things in your life (or the lives of those around you) does this truth make you think of?

RESPOND So what? How are you going to change how you live life today?

MEMORY VERSE ACTIVITY Practice the third R (restate) by writing today's memory verse in your own words in the space below.

MEMORY VERSE

"And the king stood in his place, and made a covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD, and to keep his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all his heart, and with all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant which are written in this book."

2 Chronicles 34:31

YOUNG KING FINDS THE LOST WORD OF GOD

2 Kings 22:1, 2; 2 Chronicles 34

March 5, 2017 • Unit 1, Lesson 1

Josiah became the King of Judah at the age of eight. Imagine, if you were in charge of an entire country! He replaced his wicked father, Amon. However, at a very young age, with all of that responsibility, the Bible declares that Josiah, followed God and walked with Him (2 Chronicles 34:2). If a boy can rule a nation and do what is right for the Lord, then you can live a life that brings honor and glory to our Lord.
