Start Here

Can you answer the following questions?

1. How do you view the Bible? Do you think it contains practical information for your life?

2. Have the problems that men face changed over the years? Why or why not?

3. Why are some groups of people hated by others?

Take a Closer Look

For this exercise, read each of the text Scriptures. Fill in the blanks in the following statements.

Luke 19:7-10, “And when _____ saw it, they all _____, saying, That _____ was gone to be _____ with a _____ that is a _____. And _____”

Perspectives

Using your quarterly as a guide, complete the following statements. Use your own words, not necessarily the ones found in the book.

1. If you hate others as a group, what would keep them from hating you in return?

2. How can we stop this cycle of hatred?

3. Is there any way to avoid prejudice and hatred?

4. If we cannot stop others from hating us, what can we do?

My Devotional

Captain of Army, Exodus 17:8-13.

My Daily Prayers:

My Daily Diary:

My Things To Do Tomorrow:

List some relationships in which you had little or no choice. What are some relationships where you do have a choice? Ask your parents, your pastor or your teacher to help you.
